PRACTICE (2)

Title of the Practice: Gender Sensitization

Objectives of the practice:

- To make the young students gender sensitive and create positive values that supports the girls and their rights.
- To provide overall guidance to the peer group in integrating/mainstreaming gender in all activities of the Institution in the form of focused group discussions, debates, poster making competitions and especially in sports activities.
- To provide an integrated and interdisciplinary approach to understand the social and cultural constructions of gender that shapes the experiences of women and men in society.
- To generate the awareness in regard to equality in law, social system and democratic activities.
- To install sense of equality, justice, mutual respect and accountability among the students of both the genders.
- To generate awareness regarding equality in law, social system and democratic activities.
- To provide an integrated and inter-disciplinary approach to understand the social and cultural constructions of gender that shapes the experiences of women and men in society
- To advocate and ensure same personal freedom for men and women, protection against all sorts of aggression and exploitation.
- Equality of men and women with regard to social, economic and political representation and participation.

The Context:

Our College takes pride in being one of the safest and best sensitized HEI of the district as far as gender equality and safety is concerned. The ratio of male and female staff as well as that of male and female students speaks volumes to authenticate this claim of ours. Gender sensitization aims at making students and staff gender sensitive through modification of behavior by raising awareness of gender equality concerns. This can be achieved by conducting various sensitization campaigns, trainings, workshops, programs, competitions and activities etc. with an aim to provide a harmonious and fertile environment for all students to excel physically, mentally, intellectually and emotionally upholding ethics and values. It is necessary to change their perspective about gender and create safe and secure environment.

The Practice:

The institution shows gender sensitivity in providing facilities such as:

1. Safety and Security
2. Counseling
3. Separate Garden for Girls:

Safety and security of students is a top priority of our college administration. The college is a co-education institution where both genders study together under the same roof. There are limits re-defined pertaining to behavior and language in such learning environment. College building is monitored by CCTV surveillance. CCTV cameras are strategically placed in the corridors and outside the college building and ground to keep vigil on student's activities, to ensure safety and security of learners. Students deserve to feel comfortable at college so that they can focus on learning and contributing to the learning environment. The institution is sensitive towards women issues and therefore imparts gender sensitivity among all the stakeholders like students, teaching and non-teaching staff through various means. The anti-ragging committee and sexual harassment committee plays an active role in this regard. The members of Guidance & Counseling Cell department of our college are provided with the counseling room to ensure proper counseling to all the students on regular basis. The institution has established separate girl's garden to facilitate female students, so that they can relax and have general discussions during their free time.

In addition to this the institution organizes different kinds of gender equity programs in which the girl students are encouraged to be confident and find solutions to their gender related issues. College is also inspired by the Govt. Schemes like "Beti Bachao Beti Padho". All the committees of the college initiate activities time and again to make our students sensitive about this issue.

Evidence of Success:

Our cultural beliefs reinforce the idea of acceptable behavior of males and females. This includes various socializing agents like parents, teachers, media, etc. Some gender sensitization programs in the form of lectures, seminars, webinars and awareness programs have been conducted on different gender issues. These programs are really informative for our students and sensitize them towards the other gender. Students are counselled to treat their class mates equally and they are given evidence by their teachers who treat their students equally. College teachers keep close eye on the students to monitor their behavior. Although, social values and norms are not static, deep-rooted gender and social roles can be modified over time. We can also vouch that gender roles are not static. They differ with culture, society and historical periods. Government policies and initiatives play the role of a torch bearer in breaking gender stereotypes. They coax people to examine their personal beliefs and attitudes and question the realities of both sexes. This is a success of gender equality.

Problems encountered and Resources Required:

Challenges occur, when we try to break stereotypical views of culturally and socially constructed roles. First of all, its women themselves who justify their assigned roles and subjugated status. They are wary of asserting their own agency while making meaningful decisions of their lives. They have internalized their roles and it becomes very difficult to coax them to see through the mechanism of patriarchal forces and their power play. So the biggest challenge is to change their psychology and remove their mental barriers. Although our college tries its best to maintain a balance between the genders and provide a safe and secure environment for female staff and students, the intimidating patriarchal forces and setup of our society do not allow them to voice their grievances in the public, as it is the victim who is victimized and the honour and reputation of the female which is at stake.

REPORT

Department of Sociology, Govt. Degree College Ganderbal, J & K organized an online National Level debate on the theme of Higher Education Institutions as breeding hotspots of Sexism/ Male Chauvinism from 12th Aug 2020 to 31st Aug 2020 under the patronship of Prof. Bashir Ahmad Parry. More than fifty participants across the Globe which comprised of faculty members, research scholars and students of renowned institutions of the world participated. The main aim of this academic event was to deliberate and discuss the cause and impact of women harassment in educational institutions. The debate was an attempt to impart insight on harassment issues faced by women teaching faculties in educational institutions across the globe. Probing the conduct of harasser, who is either the employer or employee of educational institutions and exploring how to highlight the grievances of the victim expeditiously is the purpose of this debate.

The Department of Sociology headed by Prof. Shafiya Mohi ud din is highly obliged to the Worthy Principal Prof. Bashir Ahmad Parry for his continuous support and guidance towards the Event. It would not have been possible to organize such an event without his leadership.
