Report on Street Play (NUKAD NAATAK) celebrated as part of the Azaadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav on the 4th of August, 2023.

As part of the celebration of "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav", Government Degree College Ganderbal in collaboration with Cultural Unit Kashmir, Department of Information And District Information Centre Ganderbal organized a thought-provoking Street play (Nukad Natak) to shed light on prevalent social evils in our society. The Street Play aimed to raise awareness about drug abuse and late marriage, emphasizing the need for collective efforts to address these issues. The Play revolved around the lives of two central characters-Elder brother (Laale) and Son (Manzoor). The final act of the Play focussed on the power of unity and collective action. Through powerful dialogues and monologues, they encouraged the audience to join hands in eradicating these social evils. The Play was a memorable and impactful event, showcasing the potential of the students and artists to address critical societal issues. By shedding light on drug abuse and late marriage, the students and artists effectively highlighted the urgency of collectively combating these social evils. The Play served as a reminder of the significance of unity, compassion, and empathy in building a progressive and inclusive society. The Principal of the college, Professor Fouzia Fatima, while addressing the gathering, praised students and artists for their excellent performances and engaging storyline. She appreciated the play's approach to portraying sensitive issues with sensitivity and realism.
