Brief Report On International Mother Tongue Day (2023)

On 23rd of February, 2023, Kashmiri Department of GDC- Ganderbal organized and celebrated International Mother Tongue Day with due solemnity in the conference hall of the college wherein various activities were incorporated involving both the teachers as well as the students in order to promote Kashmiri and other Regional languages spoken in Jammu and Kashmir. In the beginning the honorable guests were welcomed by Prof. Asma Arshi, head department of English. The programme host Prof. Inayat Ullah invited the worthy Principal of the college Dr. Fozia Fatima to present her keynote address. She highlighted the importance of one's mother tongue and its celebration at international level. Mr. Syed Akhter, chief guest of the programme also emphasized the importance of mother tongue in order to achieve educational goals at higher level. Prof. Fayaz Ahmad, head department of Chemistry stressed on the importance of mother tongue as medium of instruction at primary level. "Wanwun" (Kashmiri folk song) was presented by Humaira Riyaz and her group followed by a solo kashmiri song by Tawseef Ahmad, 5th semester student. Vote of thanks was presented by Prof. Majid Mustafa, Deptt of Education. The programme anchoring was done by Prof. Inayat Ullah, head department of Kashmiri.
